

THE GIFT

Lyrics: Phil Thomson

I have a gift for you
an endless story
a whisper in the stars of Heaven's glory

This precious light
can never be outshone
I have a gift for you
and you alone

a living flame
He knows the child within
He breathes your name

This dance of hope
will never ever cease
I have a gift for you
of perfect peace.

Freely given freely receive such eternal love
it has to be believed from the realms of glory
He set your soul apart -
I have a gift for you
from the Father's heart

I have a dream for you beyond all measure
Oh journey to the Child
this is your treasure

His holy cry
will echo through your soul
I have a gift for you
that will make you whole
